

SALVATION SONGS.

Hallelujah!

BY PETER KIRKWOOD.

TUNE—God save the Queen.

O Thou Almighty King,
Thy praises we will sing,
And bless Thy name
Thou Who from heaven high
Camest to this earth to die,
To save the lost that lie
In sin and shame.

We humbly pray to Thee—
Save, Lord, and keep us free,
Enrich us all;
By Thy great power and might
Shield thou the good and right,
Help us, dear Lord, to fight
Till we are free.

Hail, Lord, that glorious day
When people all shall pray
And bow the knee;
From earth's remotest bound
Thy praises shall resound,
And nations all be found
To honor Thee.

The Power of Christ.

BY GEORGE W. CARPIS, BURLINGTON.

TUNE—My dearest's love.

O, blessed Lamb of Calvary,
Thy dying love it sets me free,
Thy blood doth cleanse and make me
white,
Thy peace and power fills all my soul.

CHORUS.

My Jesus has come, my Jesus has come
Into my heart and made it His home;
He gives me power to do His will,
He does me with His Spirit fill.

And when my work down here is done,
The race of life is past and won,
I'll sing upon the golden shore,
And praise my God for evermore.

Oh, sinner, to this Saviour flee,
The Christ Who suffered on the tree,
Now bids you come, oh, heed His call,
There's pardon and peace and cleansing for all.

Come.

TUNE—Living beneath the shade of the Cross.

Oh, come to the Saviour, oh, weary one come,
Seek Him to-day, oh, sinner, come home,
There's room at the Cross, oh, seek Him
to-day;
In Jesus you'll find salvation.

CHORUS.

There's pardon, peace and power for all,
For sinner of sinners, who at His feet fall;
The blood of our Saviour will set you
free,
Remove sin and all condemnation.

There's life for you, sinner, though dead in sin,
The fountain is open, come now enter in;
Christ waits to deliver and set your soul
free,
And give you a full salvation.

Accept this free gift, get ready to-day,
While Jesus your Saviour is now passing by,
Go now out to meet Him. He waits to receive,
And to give you a full salvation.

Calling To-Day.

P. W. CHARLTON, P. E. I.

TUNE—America is strong to-day.

SINER, arise from your Saviour,
Treading the downward way,
The Saviour He bleeds for you intercedes,
Oh turn not His Spirit away.

CHORUS.

Jesus is calling thee sinner,
Calling to-day, calling to-day;
Jesus is calling thee sinner,
Heed now His call and obey.

For you on the cross He suffered,
For you His life He gave;
He bore all the shame, oh, bless His dear
Name.

That you through His dying might live,
Long at your heart He's been knocking,
Waiting to set your soul free;
But you have been so deaf, and bid Him
cease,
Yet still He is calling for thee.

ANNIVERSARY.

The Commandant and Mrs. Booth

WILL VISIT

KINGSTON,
On MONDAY, April 17th.The Commandant will give an Address on "The Salvation Army in Relation to the Social Problems."

MRS BOOTH WILL SPEAK AND SING.

In the Army.

BY CAPT. JOHN DALE.

TUNE—Over Jordan.

5 Praise the Lord, we're saved from sin,
Jesus doth abide within,
And our hearts are kept quite clean,
In the Army.

We have victory all the time
On the halcyon line,
By His grace we'll always shine,
In the Army.

CHORUS.

In the Army, in the Army,
For I know the victory's mine
On the halcyon line,
In the Army, in the Army;
Warning sinners all the time,
In the Army.

On this line it is so grand,
As we march through the land,
And for Jesus take our stand,
In the Army.

As this fee we like to give,
We're supplied with needed grace,
Content that this is our place,
In the Army.

On this line we nothing lack
With King Jesus at our back
For all sin we do attack,
In the Army.

There is work for all to do,
Neath the yellow, red and blue,
If to God and souls we're true,
In the Army.

The Wonderful Love of God.

BY CAPT. J. EMMETT, ST. JOHN'S, N.Y.

TUNE—Bringing in the sheaves.

6 Long in sin I wandered, and my time
Grieving my dear Saviour, Who for me
had died;
Oh! I heard the story how He left His home.

And for me on Calvary He was crucified,
My dear Jesus.

Jesus' love so full, Jesus' love so free,
Oying for all sinners; yes, for you and me.
(Repeat.)

Oh! I signed for pardon, still my heart would harden
When I thought the Cross was very hard to bear;

But my Saviour told me I should come out bold;
If I walked in heaven a crown of life to bear.

Though I long neglected, and His call
I rejected,
When I came heart-broken to the blessed Cross;

Poore my Saviour gave me, and in love did save me,
Now Thou dost everything for Him as I roam.

The fountain still is flowing, Christ 'His love bestowing,
Sinner, will you come while yet 'His call to-day?

The Saviour still is pleading, for you intercede,
Come just now, He's waiting His loving voice obey.

Friendship of Jesus.

BY CAPT. A. WOOD, TORONTO, CANADA.

TUNE—Oh, 'tis Jesus leads my footsteps.

7 In the secret of His presence,
We seek delight to abide;
How precious are the lessons
I learn as Jesus' side.

CHORUS.

Oh, 'tis Jesus, etc.
And my Saviour waits beside me,
We hold communion sweet;
If I tried I could not sever
What He has joined thus we meet.

Do you think He's ever far from me?
What a strange friend He would be!
If He never, never told me
Of the sin that He must meet?

Oh, no, He is very precious,
And that makes me true Him more,
For I know that He loves me,
And He'll be true to me evermore.

Would you like to know the Saviour,
Or the secret of the Lord?
Go and hide beneath His shadow,
This shall thus be your reward.

Soldiers of the Cross.

TUNE—Fate of Babylon.

8 We are soldiers of Jesus, and we're marching to war,
With Christ for our Commander we have nothing to fear.

That the world may oppose us, yet overcome us;
To bring in poor sinners and the devil
out of town.

CHORUS.

Blessed Jesus, blessed Jesus,
Thou dost desire to see us,
Thou the world and all its treasures
Which I cling close to Thee.

We are soldiers of Jesus, in the fight we'll not cease,
We've enlisted under the colors of the yellow, red and blue;

Critics may grumble and professors
find fault,
We'll live for the Saviour, for by Him
we're taught.

We are soldiers of Jesus, in the Army we fight,
That all hell may surround us, they'll not put us to flight.

For our trust is in Jesus, and on Him we know,
Knowing if we are faithful we shall meet
Him with joy.

We are soldiers of Jesus, we're fighting to win,
We tell of the blood that can cleanse us
from all sin;

We boast of a Saviour who keeps us each day,
Him under His wings that we never can stray.

We are soldiers of Jesus, the war will soon
close,
If our work is done faithfully, eternally we'll spend

With Him and love once around the white throne,
Singing praise unto Him for what He has done.

Trust.

AUXILIARY 203.

TUNE—I need Thee every hour.

9 Lord, how I dearly need
Thy wondrous power,
From sin to keep me free
Each day and every hour.

CHORUS.

I'll trust Thee, yes, I'll trust Thee,
Every hour I'll trust Thee;
In life, in death, dear Saviour,
I'll trust in Thee.

I'll trust in Thee alone,
For none indeed Thou art;
Thou didst die for me alone,
And cleanse my heart.

In Thee I find my light,
My joy and peace;
With Thee my days are bright,
My sorrows cease.

Teach me to live for Thee,
For Thee alone,
And I will ever be,
Jesus, Thine own.

A Novel Testimony.

WHAT HE SAID.

"Dear friends, we're all got to stand before God some day; you don't know when. The sinner don't know, the Christian don't know, God don't know; no one knows but God. And on that day He'll hang up your good and bad like before him, and show that God has joined to gather let no man put asunder."

ABOUT THAT BREAKFAST.

"One thing I can't make out, how do the Salvation Army can afford to give away so many breakfasts. I don't think it's right to waste money in that way. This man referred to our 'halcyon breakfasts' as a seven a.m. on Sunday morning.
He was positive that he knew all about it, when, in truth, he had never been at one before. He said that God, the supply of heavenly food is unlimited, and all we need for the seeking. Nevertheless, 'for this' will be required of us. 'Ask, and ye shall receive.' 'Then shall your soul delight itself in fasting.'"

OUR LONDON LETTER.

BY "COMMUNISTAN."

MARCH 29TH, 1913.

The contribution of this column of news has, owing to the extreme pressure of circumstances at the International centre, been again suspended; but I send by this mail to send you at any rate a few paragraphs having reference to the most important things of the hour.

In a most unparalleled degree, the salvation campaigns of the General, in the various parts of the country where he has been, have been attended with such results which were in view, viz. the salvation of souls. Scores, and in some cases, even hundreds, have left their seats and gone forward to the penitential-fire in the grace of hundreds, if not of thousands, of people. On Monday last, the General conducted all day meetings in one of the largest Nonconformist places of worship in the North of London. To-night he leaves for Canterbury, Cornwall, where he will spend the whole of the Easter-tide, and a week later he will conduct a whole day's meetings on his fifth birthday, in the Westminster Chapel, in the west end of this great city, leaving the chapel, probably, before the close of the evening meeting for Copenhagen for the five days "Continental Congress" in that city, at which there will be representatives of the staff from Sweden, Norway, Finland, Germany, Holland, Denmark, France, and the United Kingdom. After this—Well, perhaps that is enough for the present," you will say. Still I may just mention in passing that Jesus is already floating about for our demand to visit our forces in several other countries on the continent of Europe.

THE CHIEF OF THE STAFF, I am glad to say, has much improved in health since I last wrote. He is daily, at the International, surrounded with, the salutes of, all sorts of business arrangements, so that he is not, as he used to be, so much in his own hands, through which he made his prayers of every Salvation Army soldier of every land.

COLONEL REY BROWN, with regard to whose health grave anxiety was attached to recently, at the time that she was stricken with fever while in the hospital, is now thankful to be able to say, again on the war path, and she has, within the past few days, left Bombay for Ceylon, for a special tour of salvation work.

MAJOR AND MISS CLIMBURN, who, for nearly three years have been holding the fort in Belgium, have just from Liverpool to-day for Buenos Ayres to take up the command of our operations in South America. Sweden, too, is having a change. Col. HALLSTAD, the Chief Secretary of that country, an officer whom we may say has grown up with the work there—a Swede by birth and a convert of the Salvation Army in that country—is now about to farewell. He is appointed to the position of Assistant Foreign Secretary at the International Headquarters.

MAJOR HAYES, who has held various positions in our South African fight arrived in London this week. He leaves in a few days for Berlin, where he has been appointed to succeed Major Falkus, in the German Chief Secretaryship.

The Special International March Campaign for the salvation of souls, which the General inaugurated at the beginning of this month, is, praise God, going as the results, another proof of the fact that Jesus is on our side, and that the Salvation Army, as a whole, is attaining more than ever the end for which it was instituted by Him—the subjugation of the world to His will. Letters and telegrams from all over the world are coming in mail after mail, and day after day, informing us of the blessed victories that have been secured.

COLONEL MCKIE, who has since he left London last, already issued through Belgium and Holland, and whose meetings have been almost in every case spiritual earthquakes and tornadoes of salvation, now in Germany with Commissioner Bilton fighting the foe, not only in our own souls, but on his own ground, the "pulpit." From there he passes up in Switzerland, where another hour has been planned out for him.

THE BOSTON OFFICE—that is to say, those departments of our Headquarters, hovering upon the nation, concerning the British Field, have this week left the building near the Embankment and have come again to the International Headquarters, which is now a much larger building than it was when they removed, some three or four years ago, consisting at the present time of Nos. 101, 102, and 103, Queen Victoria Street.

TEXT.—We have no other argument.

1 Jesus, we're marching in Thy strength, Our grateful thanks we give; As soldiers faithful, firm and true, We look to Thee and live.

CHORUS.

The Army's marching on today, With drums and banners high; We march, we shout, we sing, we pray, Of Jesus testify.

Saved drunkards, Lord, are in our ranks, Rich troopers of Thy love; We march, we shout, we sing, we pray, Of Jesus testify.

But there are sinners dying, Lord, In Satan's chains they lie; We'll strive to bring them back to Thee Our living Fountain Head.

To Thee the glory Lord we give, To Thee all praise be due; We'll stand upon Thy promises, And fight the battle through.

LIBERT.

TEXT.—The Great Is Doing.

2 Once I was blind as darkest night, When Jesus came my way; But all my darkness turned to light, When Jesus came my way.

My pathway clear I could not see, I felt like one not free; But all was light, as if it could be, When Jesus came my way.

CHORUS.

Some people boast and jeer and scoff, etc.

I'm bound by chains of sin, I'm bound by chains of sin; I'm bound by chains of sin, I'm bound by chains of sin.

But all at once my soul and mind I felt like one not free; But all was light, as if it could be, When Jesus came my way.

CHORUS.

But all at once my soul and mind I felt like one not free; But all was light, as if it could be, When Jesus came my way.

CHORUS.

But all at once my soul and mind I felt like one not free; But all was light, as if it could be, When Jesus came my way.

CHORUS.

But all at once my soul and mind I felt like one not free; But all was light, as if it could be, When Jesus came my way.

Will Set Free.

CHORUS.

Though the way is sometimes rough, And the fighting rather tough, Yet I'll conquer through the blood, While I trust Him.

Consolation.

BY RANDMAN H. J. JARVIS, RICHMOND, TEXAS—Richmond.

7 When I draw near to Calvary, Where Jesus shed His blood for me, I feel, dear Lord, that in my heart, I prize the blood that makes me free.

CHORUS.

Oh I'm glad there is cleansing in the blood.

When I behold that sacred place, Where Jesus shed His blood for me, I feel that I unworthily am To take upon me Thy great Name.

CHORUS.

Dear Father, now I bring my life, My talents, time, and all I own; Whatever I have, they are from Thee, I'll serve Thee through the world may I know.

Accept me for Thy service, Lord, And give me help for all I do, A love for Thee and Thy people, Till I shall come and dwell above.

CHORUS.

Accept me for Thy service, Lord, And give me help for all I do, A love for Thee and Thy people, Till I shall come and dwell above.

CHORUS.

Accept me for Thy service, Lord, And give me help for all I do, A love for Thee and Thy people, Till I shall come and dwell above.

CHORUS.

Accept me for Thy service, Lord, And give me help for all I do, A love for Thee and Thy people, Till I shall come and dwell above.
